ON account of the absence of our regular business manager, his assistant, who also holds down the chair of Exchanges, has been compelled to give his entire attention to business matters, so the Exchange column is necessarily omitted. Next month will see this attractive feature of the magazine in full operation, and our esteemed contemporaries may look out for their usual dose of mush or mud.

WE are pleased to announce a pleasant surprise from Mr. H. N. Hills, '77, in the shape of a generous contribution to the Athletic Association. Coming as it did unsolicited and accompanied by a note showing such genuine interest and kindness, it was doubly appreciated: We take occasion to thank Mr. Hills very much for his remembrance and to say that all appreciate the kindly act. Mr. Hills has before shown his generosity and interest, and this is only one thing more to remind us that we have a friend in him.

THE term now fast drawing to a close has been in many respects a successful and happy one for old Kenyon and her students.

It has seen the revival of the Theological Seminary, the practical adjustment of most difficulties in the report of the committee on revising the Constitution; it has seen our foot ball club, notwithstanding the small number of students, do itself and the college proud.

Last but not least, in studies the college has done remarkably well, and next term we hope to see all return refreshed and ready for hearty work.

May each one realize his anticipations, and have during the vacation a true holiday time.

BEING, as it were, an athletic number it is appropriate to say here a few words in regard to our baseball team for next spring. Our work last year was on the whole a lamentable failure, and the fact that we did not make a better showing is largely due to the fact that we did not practice enough. If we put a team in the field next spring, we should do everything in our power to have a nine that will do us justice. We certainly have material for a very fair nine, and it is just as certain that this material with no training will make us take a back seat, as it did last year. To the end that the best results possible may be obtained, the manager announces that all candidates for the baseball team will be compelled to go into active training in the Gym. directly after the Christmas holidays. Any one who does not feel interest enough to spend a little of his time at honest work may give up all idea of being in the nine; for work in the Gym. is absolutely necessary before a man will be even given a trial on the team.

No work no play is the motto, and it will be strictly lived up to. The team was especially weak in batting last year and this matter can be largely remedied by proper work in the Gym. Let this matter be understood by all, and those desiring to be candidates come back with the idea that they will cheerfully and faithfully do their duty in this regard and we may expect a team next spring of which we may be proud although it should not win the championship.

SEVERAL times before we have taken occasion to speak of the work in Philo, this time our object is to speak of the lack of it. For a month now the society has met each Wednesday night only to adjourn on account of no quorum. It is a shame to see interest thus early dying. The society was revised only last year and now we see it dormant again. This is truly a pity, and we suppose that we shall have to go back again to the old system of compulsory rhetoricals. Perhaps it would be the best thing under the circumstances, for as it is, a very few get any good out of the exercises. When some of the delinquents are made to feel that this work must be done somehow, if not in the society then under a professor, they may really begin to believe that Philo. is not such a bore after all.

We all need this training, that is evident enough, and if we do not choose to take it of our own free will, it should be compulsory the same as any other study.

But let us give Philo. one more chance. The coming term will really determine whether the society will live or die. A few real earnest meetings at the opening of the term may revive the dying interest, and it is certain that many more adjournments simply from want of a quorum will complete the ruin. Some of the members seem only too anxious to find excuses for staying away, and often "Oh I don't feel like going tonight" is given as a sufficient reason. Let those who really have the interests of Philo. at heart manifest them by doing their duty. Nothing except sickness or absence from the town should be given or taken as an excuse. We now have a chance to prove ourselves; let us see what the outcome will be

A VISIT TO THE TEMPLE.

NOTHING could be a more agreeable surprise to one visiting London the first time than the possibility of seclusion in the heart of a city which his imagination had pictured as one bewildering, surging mass of humanity. The lovely bits of green country, streets with an air of almost Sabbath quiet, the trees looking in at his very windows, and all this bordering upon the very centers of the city's life, are a constant source of wonder and delight.

In spite of having grown somewhat accustomed to this, we had a renewed feeling of astonishment when, after less than a half minute's walk from crowded, roaring Fleet Street, we found ourselves in a grassy court, surrounded by plain, substantial brick buildings, and experienced a sensation of relief at the profound silence which made so strong a contrast to the world from which we had just come.

This, then, is the place where for centuries the majesty of English law has had its abode. Here, nearly two thousand benchers and barristers have their chambers, which in case of bachelors, means their home as well as law office.

The names of Temple and Inns of Court, are familiar to every one, but exactly what they represent is, I fancy, as vague in the minds of most persons as the processes of law with which they are associated.

Once the property of the Knights Templars, whence its name, this site, consisting now of several acres of land and occupied by more than twenty-five sets of buildings, was granted by James I to two societies of lawyers.

We have come in through Middle Temple Lane, a narrow alley looking like an entrance to private grounds, and are now in the Middle Temple. This and the Inner Temple are the most famous of the Inns of Court. Their names define the position of each with respect to the old city limits, at a time when there was a third, called the Outer Temple.

We are free to wander about at will and see no one except an occasional "silk" or "stuff"—as the Queen's Counsel and their less fortunate brother barristers are called—passing to his chambers in all the pomp of wig and gown.

We go first through Brick Court, where Goldsmith had his chambers and disturbed by his social festivities the meditations of Blackstone on the floor below him.

On our way to the Middle Temple Hall, we pass the entrances to many more courts, all associated with the names of men famous in law or literature. This hall was opened by Queen Elizabeth, who led the dance with her Lord Chancellor, to whom, tradition says, her attention was first attracted by his proficiency in this art. Even later than that, those studying for the bar have been required to learn to dance and have been deprived of their commons for refusing to make use of this accomplishment on festive occasions.

On a screen in the Hall the aspirant to the bar of the Middle Temple, posts his name and various particulars concerning his own life and position and that of his father. This he has to do two weeks before "Call Day." His call rests entirely with the Benchers, a body made up of Her Majesty's Counsel and holding all rights of government in this voluntary association of practitioners.

Going on through the Temple Garden, past the fine tennis court and handsome library, we come to the fountain, famous in song and story. This was the spot which Tom Pinch and his sweet sister Ruth agreed upon as a meeting place when his day's work was over, and the fountain which Dickens say, "might have leaped up twenty feet to greet the spring of hopeful maidenhood, that in her person stole on, sparkling, through the dry and dusty channels of the law." The place, too, where Tom's friend John Westlock found himself, quite by accident, of course, at the same time in the afternoon.

No definite boundary marks the limits of either Temple, so presently we are walking in the garden of the Inner Temple, looking out over the Victoria Embankment to the Thames.

Here, at some times in the day, may be seen the drills of the Inns of Court Volunteers, called the "Devil's Own," a name which they have borne since the enrollment of the company at the time of Napoleon's threatened invasion, and one which some might be disposed to consider significant, considering the profession from which they are drawn.

The Temple garden is the resort, on summer afternoons, of myriads of poor children who have their wretched homes within a stone's throw of the seclusion and beauty of the Temple precincts, and who are enabled, by the generosity of the Benchers, to enjoy its attractions.

The last and crowning object of interest is the Temple Church. This represents a style of architecture of which there are only one or two more existing specimens, the entrance to the nave being dome-shaped. The seats in the "round," as it is called, are free to everyone, but those inside the nave are reserved for the members of the Temple, to which they are not allowed to take even their own families.

In church, too, the division between the Inner and Middle Temples is preserved, the members of the former sitting in the southern half of the church and those of the latter in the northern. On the roof above the Middle Templars is their heraldic device, a Lamb and Flag; and on the opposite side a Pegasus, the emblem of the Inner Temple.

The order of a Bencher will procure a seat in the nave; but we not being provided with that and not having the necessary assurance to resort to means which have been potent in some cases and send in an order signed "Half a Crown," took our places in the "round," and enjoyed the most perfect musical service we had heard in any church, even if we could not hear much of the sermon. ADA I. AYER.

THE WOOSTER GAME

30 TO 2.

The game with Wooster on Nov. 15th was an agreeable surprise to all, Wooster excepted. The day was bad, raining some during the game, and the grounds were very slippery. Play was called at 3:50, the men lining up as follows:

WOOSTER.	POSITIONS.	KENYON.
Andrews.....	Right End.....	Scott
Tyndall.....	Right Tackle.....	Kunts
Phillips.....	Right Guard.....	Buttolph
Campbell.....	Center Rush.....	Beeson
Bogle.....	Left Guard.....	Klinhans
Chalfant.....	Left Tackle.....	Sheerin
Long.....	Left End.....	Storch
Work.....	Right Half Back.....	Walkley W
Alexander.....	Quarter Back.....	Foley
Ross.....	Full Back.....	Walkley C

The ball was in our possession and play was started by a punt from Walkley W. to Work. We gained 6 yards. The ball was then played up to our 25-yard line, when Long made a run and touch down, Ross kicking the goal, time, 13½ minutes. Ross, Chalfant and Tyndall made heavy rushes, though our men worked hard and Work made a touch down by a run of 5 yards. No goal. The ball was punted from the 25-yard line and downed by McGaw. Work then made a splendid run of over 40 yards and touch down. No goal. Foley punted, after lining up several times, Ross made a punt to Walkley C., who started on a run with a nearly clear field. While running at a great pace he collided with Chalfant, who according to all accounts made no attempt to tackle him, but in trying to hit him was knocked senseless by a blow from Walkley's head on his neck. Walkley allowed his kind-heartedness to interfere with his foot-ball playing and stopped when he had almost a clear field before him. Time was called for 5 minutes, Julliard taking Chalfant's place. After several plays Tyndall forced his way along like a bull for 15 yards; Ross after two more downs was shoved across the line and made a touch down. No goal. Time was called at the end of 37½ minutes which had been settled upon as the length of a half. The score was 18 to 0.

After ten minutes rest, play resumed and Wooster started with a V, gaining 25 yards. After one more down we obtained the ball, but Walkley C. fumbled and a safety was the result. After the punt off, on which we gained, McGaw made a run and then Work made a touch down. No goal. Then Hoglen made a very good run, but was hurt, Walkley C. taking his place and Neft playing full back. Tyndall made a touch down. Goal. On the next punt Ross fumbled and we gained 30 yards. Foley made a bad pass, but we downed the ball, although losing 5 yards. Foley then made a try for goal from the field, but failed, the ball not being kicked hard enough, though straight. Ross attempted to punt the ball out, but it hit Kuntz who was about 6 yards from the line and it bounded back where Ross was obliged to make a safety. Wooster immediately raised a hue and cry and tried to get out of it, but it was decided a fair safety. It was now too dark to play and time was called after 22 minutes of play and the ball to be played from Wooster's 25-yard line. That was good enough to satisfy us.

NOTES.

Bobby kicked on Beeson, but it did no good.

The train Sunday morning was nearly an hour late.

Little Bobby Watson and his whistle did the referee act.

Capt. Smith and his little barbs created quite a noise; they were out for blood.

59 minutes were played instead of 43, as the Voice says. Moxie's watch was off.

Ross is a powerful punter, when he kicked the ball it generally went a few yards.

Tyndall, Wooster's Indian, was one of the most gentlemanly fellows and players they had.

It would hardly be fair to mention the play of any one of our team in particular; all played so well.

Duerr and Cox were anxious to be taken down so they could watch the game, but the rain prevented.

Some one said that Alexander got fooled when he attempted to knock Walkley W. down. It looked that way.

That safety was good. Wooster has it up her head and boasts of not being scored against in two years. They can not honestly say it any more.

The chimes came in for their usual share of cussing. "Those — — chimes wouldn't let me sleep," was the first thing every Wooster man said Saturday morning.

Every body played well and the enthusiasm ran high. Every one rather looked for a walk-over for Wooster, and when it took them nearly 14 minutes to get the first touch down we felt encouraged.

THE THANKSGIVING GAME.

Thanksgiving, the 27th, proved a most disagreeable day as might have been expected. The team left for Columbus at 7 a. m., and soon it was snowing merrily seeming to be bound to give us a chance to play in dirty weather. The game was called about 10, many of the O. S. U. boys wishing to go home that afternoon. The teams lined up as follows:

KENYON.	POSITION.	O. S. U.
Williams	Center	Lincoln
Beeson	Right Guard	Keiser
Buttolph, G.	Right Tackle	Richardson
Buttolph, H.	Right End	Patterson
Kleinhans	Left Guard	Whitacre
Sheerin	Left Tackle	Huggins
Storck	Left End	Ellis
Foley	Quarter Back	Foster
Walkley, W.	Right Half Back	Schaffer
Scott	Left Half Back	Johnson
Walkley, C.	Full Back	Bronson

Mr. Brusie was umpire, Morrey of O. S. U., referee, and Hendman time keeper. As substitutes we had Doelittle, Speer, Rifemberick and Neff, but none of them were needed.

The game started with the ball in our possession, we having the north goal. After several downs and no gain Walkley, W. kicks, Schaeffer gets the ball and runs for 10 yards, Bronson then punts and O. S. U. gains. The V used by O. S. U. and a gain of 3 yards. Then Johnson and Schaeffer work the criss cross and Schaffer gets a touch down. Time, 6 minutes.

The ball was then played from the 25 yard line, Scott runs but no gain, then O. S. U. gets the ball and in a punt by Schaeffer, Walkley, W. gets the ball and gains a little. Then he runs again for a gain of 6 yards followed by Foley for 5 more; Walkley, C. then punts but it was low and hit one of our men. We soon get the ball and Kleinhans advances it 10 yards in a run. We are given 5 yards for an off side play; a long punt by Bronson, the ball is muffed by Walkley, C., and Patterson gets it and makes a touch down; goal by Richardson. Time 14 minutes, the half only a third gone and they had ten, we nothing. Things look blue, but the boys brace up and begin to play. Walkley, W. and Scott make several good runs advancing the ball to O. S. U.'s 25 yard line, but O. S. U. gets the ball and on Schaeffer's run gain 15 yards. Then Kenyon and O. S. U. gain and loose in turn. Walkley, C. then gets the ball and makes a pretty run of 20 yards. After several runs with small gains Walkley, C. punts for a gain of 10 yards. Soon O. S. U. gets the ball and after a run by Schaeffer they try a V through our center, but do not gain. We get the ball again and Scott runs well for 8 yards, we are then given 5 yards more in another off-side play. Walkley, C. then takes it ahead for 3 yards more and we are within ten feet of O. S. U.'s goal line, but try as we may, we can not force it over and the ball goes to O. S. U. in 4 downs; Schaeffer punts, we get ball and Scott advances it 8 yards. Then we try to rush it, and in 4 downs the ball goes to O. S. U.; on Schaeffer's punt O. S. U. gains 15 yards. After several gains and losses in different runs, Walkley, W. punts, it is returned and caught by Walkley, W. Foley now attempts a place kick for goal, but slips as he tries to kick and the ball goes too low. Now it is O. S. U.'s ball and after several rushes and runs by Johnson and Schaeffer the ball is played up to our 25 yard line. Foley runs but slips, Schaeffer gets the ball and runs but no gain. Time—Score O. S. U. 10, Kenyon, 0.

SECOND HALF.

After the rest of ten minutes play begins again. The boys are not disheartened at their failure in the first half, but resolve to do or die, and with that determination start in to play as pretty a game as one often sees. O. S. U. starts off with the ball and gains 18 yards, gaining 8 more in two downs. The ball is now at our 25 yard line. We get the ball and after two runs with rather more loss than gain, Walkley, W. punts for a gain of 20 yards. O. S. U. punts and Walkley, C. makes a run to the center of the field. We gain 6 yards more and then the ball goes to O. S. U. At this point, Johnson who has wrenched his ankle retires and Krumm takes his place. We get the ball and gain 8 yards. Scott then gets the ball and after a fine run of 40 yards makes our first touch down directly behind the goal; Walkley, W. fails to kick the goal. Time, 8 minutes. Bronson punts and gains for O. S. U.; Walkley, W. gets the ball and runs to 45 yard line. O. S. U. gets the ball, and after several plays Lincoln goes through our center for 6 yards. Then Buttolph, G. gets the ball but does not gain much. After the 3d down Walkley, W. punts for a gain of 40 yards. O. S. U. gains 10 yards on two runs and we get the ball and gain 15. Scott and Walkley, W. run gaining 7 yards; then Walkley W. makes a touch down. Punt out but it fails and O. S. U. gets the ball for a very short time, for inside of 5 minutes Walkley, W. had secured another touch down from which he kicked goal. The score was now 14 and we were ahead. O. S. U. now takes a brace and Huggins gains 15 yards on a run around the end; Schaeffer makes two more runs which are good for 8 yards, and the ball is now near our 25 yard line. Back and forth the ball goes now, but always remaining in O. S. U.'s possession. Shoves and V's are mainly attempted, but on a run by Krumm we get the ball; Walkley, W. runs and makes 12 yards. We lose again and the ball is now played right around our goal. O. S. U. tries desperately for a touch down as that would tie the score, and we try as desperately to keep them from it. The playing on both sides is very good, but we finally got the ball away and on Walkley, W.'s punt, which Storch captured after a pretty play, we gain 13 yards. After more runs with little gain Walkley, W. punts for 6 yards. We get the ball again, when Scott and Walkley, W. make runs good for 20 yards, Walkley, W. then gains 20 on another run. We are now at their goal line, and after a desperate rush Walkley, C. succeeds in getting another touch down. The punt out fails again. Kleinhans gets the ball and gains. Then O. S. U. gets the ball and Schaeffer runs for a small gain. Time called with the ball in O. S. U.'s territory. Score 18 to 0. Total, 18 to 10.

NOTES.

Foley made some pretty tackles, he is at his best there.

After the first disastrous fifteen minutes every one played well.

Walkley, W. plays foot-ball like he plays base-ball, to win, and he gets there too.

That run of Scott's was a pretty one, he did not run fast but used good judgment.

Walkley, W. with his "Tut, tut," and Beedy with his "Be quiet, child" afforded lots of amusement.

If you want to know who played well for us read the entire list of our players. They were all there.

For O. S. U. Schaeffer played a splendid game, he has lots of dash and nerve and is quick. He is a good one.

Towards the latter part of the game Ellis got tired of making offside plays. We were given 5 yards twice for them.

Our practice in guarding showed in this game. If we only knew at Granville what we know now how different the result might have been.

Mr. Brusie's umpiring was first-class and Morrey as referee did splendidly. He was as square as any one could ask. Just compare him with Thresher.

The Academy eleven is trying to arrange a game with O. S. U. here. We hope they will succeed. How it would please us if Mr. Brusie could play in our eleven. He is a tower of strength.

The O. S. U. boys intended to give us dinner at the Dorm, but the fellows concluded that as it was Thanksgiving they would be sure of a good dinner and went to the Neil at their own expense. The Dorm grub may be good, but we couldn't trust it on a feast day.

At Westerville the Otterbein team got on the train; they were on their way to Granville to play Denison. Some of them saw our game as far as the end of the first half and carried the news to Dennison that we were being wiped out of existence. They were slightly mistaken. Their game resulted 44 to 0 in favor of Dennison, so it looks as if they were the ones who had been put off the earth.

A REVIEW.

In this it is proposed to review the article in the Wooster Voice of November 17th, on the foot-ball game played here the 15th. In the start we wish to say, that we recognize that it is hardly in the decent usage of newspapers to call our opponent a liar, or his article a tissue of lies, but in some cases it is hard to stop short of this. Either the Wooter writer was densely ignorant of many facts which should have been plain to him, or else he deliberately falsifies. From the article it is hard to judge what was the case, but we give him the benefit of the doubt.

To begin at the beginning the very heading of the article is false. The score as decided by the referee was 30 to 2. As the referee has sole and final powers the only possible way in which they could change the score would be to protest it before the State Association. They did nothing of the sort and in reality stole from our credit when the score was printed as it was. We realize their object, indeed in the same issue in which the account of the game appeared is a squib to the effect that their team had not been scored against us two seasons. That is the explanation, they wish a clear record, and if they can not get it honestly propose to steal it. We intend to see that they don't. The safety was as fair as could be desired. According to their own account Ross received the ball and attempted to return it, but the ball struck Kunts, rebounded over the line and Ross was compelled to down it. What more is wanted. According to Rule 4 (b), last part, a safety is made when * * the ball being kicked by one of his own side bounds back from an opponent across the goal line, and he then touches it down. This was exactly what happened, but Wooster to crawl claims that Kunts attempted to kick the ball thus giving it the impetus. This is false. In fact they never made the claim until they saw no other way of sneaking out of it.

The next line contains as great a misrepresentation as the first. That is that there were only 43 minutes of actual play. In addition to the watch the referee held there were a number in the crowd which gave the time within less than a minute of that as given by Watson. It is true that one Wooster man attempted to keep time, but we must say it was his first attempt, for he surely makes a great mistake when he says that we played only 43 minutes. The time for the first half as given by him is 31 minutes, when in fact 37 were played. He says 10 minutes were given for time when Chalfant was hurt, when in fact barely five minutes were consumed. Again he says that there were only 12 minutes of play in the last half when in reality 22 minutes was the time, making the total 59 minutes instead of 43 as they report.

The score could hardly be multiplied by two either for with only 15 minutes more of play and the ball right at their goal they would have been kept pretty busy in scoring 30 points.

There are several other errors, but purely mistakes. The most noticeable was where Foley made a trial for goal from field, and the report gives it as a long punt by Walkley, C. Perhaps they never heard of such a play.

To conclude, we simply state, that we wish a fair report of the game, and no hashed up affair to suit Wooster palates. The score was 30 to 2, and it stands so unless changed by the State Association.

The News.

Is there a Glee Club? If not, why not?

Mrs. and Miss Sterling returned to Gambier a short time ago.

Miss Bodine has gone to Baltimore. She is visiting relatives and will be absent for some time.

Commins and Neff, '94, went a shooting the other day. They shot a quail,—but it fell in the river.

Mr. Hills says the students need not pay for the damage done to the piano which he lent last commencement for a College concert. This kindness speaks for itself.

Mrs. Rust gave a reception to the Football elevens of College and Academy, on November 11. A very pleasant time is reported by those who had the privilege of attending.

The weekly meetings of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held every Friday, beginning at 7 o'clock, in Dr. Bodine's room in Ascension Hall. All College men are welcome.

Bishop Leonard was in Gambier nearly a week. He was very busy every day. The divinity students enjoyed two lectures daily from him on Church History. Mrs. Leonard only remained over Sunday.

Since our last issue we have to record two very enjoyable receptions given by Mrs. Seibt, to divinity and College men. Bishop Leonard was present at the former and ladies from Harcourt were present at both. Both evenings were most pleasant.

The Bishop Bedell Missionary Society held its November meeting on the first Friday of the month. It was well attended. An essay on India was read by F. W. Bope, '93, and one by Mr. Benton, divinity student, on Henry Martyn, the missionary. The next meeting will be on the first Friday of December.

We record, with much sympathy for Louis Williams, the death of his father. He and his sister were called home by telegram on Sunday, the 9th ult. The next day word was received that his father was dead. Genuine and heartfelt sympathy goes out to him from all his fellow students in this, his bereavement.

Kennedy, '92, writes, so we learn at the last moment, that he means to come back next term. Kenyon pleases him better than Harvard. There is nothing which gives Kenyon men more gratification than to hear their college well spoken of, and there is no surer evidence that it deserves the "good name" than such as the example of Kennedy affords.

The College men in the west wing of Kenyon have greatly improved the appearance of that end of College by putting matting in the halls; lamps also have been hung up. At night a visitor may now call with more safety, to say nothing of the cheerfulness which accompanies the lighting up of the hall. There is some talk of the other wings following suit.

The meetings of the Philomathesian Literary Society have been anything but satisfactory of late, to those students who want to count their Wednesday evenings as profitable ones. We ought to have plenty of good literary work done by the members. Very few, if any, of the students wish to see the Literary evening given up. A good debate every week participated in by all the members present would be of more benefit than any other single thing we can think to mention. The committee for appointing duties has done its duty well. Everything depends upon those who are appointed to take part, making the very best preparation before coming. This is where the real interest is manifested.

Foot Ball.

The Wooster-Denison game was won by Wooster—58—0.

The O. S. U. and Wooster Foot-ball match at Columbus on Nov. 1, resulted in a victory for the latter. Score 64—0.

The College eleven has been challenged by the Otterbein Foot-ball Club, but owing to no open date, has not been able to accept. The Hall eleven, however, will probably get two games with them; one here, the other at Westerville.

Foot ball practice has been going on with much briskness between the College and Academy elevens. The result of three games played is as follows:

in favor of the College. In the last game there was a good deal of hard playing and which might be called pretty rough.

Alumni Notes.

Sanford's brother paid him a visit on Thanksgiving.

F. C. Curtis, '89, Curtis Claypool, '87, and T. B. Wright, '83, were also out at the game.

Hon. W. S. Taylor, '81, was recently elected Superior Judge, on the Republican ticket, in lower California.

H. C. Wing, '89, accompanied the team to Columbus the 27th, and helped cheer the team on to victory.

Rev. H. Usher Monroe, Class of —, now rector of St. Mary's Church, Newton Lower Falls, Mass., was married last month to Miss Edith Parker Jourdan.

Walstein Douthirt, who is reading law in Columbus, paid Gambier a few hours' visit one day this month. He was here on business. His brother speaks in a very complimentary way of his legal ability.

Rev. E. Jay Cooke (class of '69), rector of St. John's Church, Clinton, Iowa, preached Sunday morning November 16, on the subject of temperance. By request the sermon was printed in the Clinton Daily Age. The editor refers to it in commendatory terms.

The Rev. H. L. Badger, '62, and wife of Portsmouth, Ohio, were called to Monroeville on the 10th, by the death of Mrs. Badger's uncle, Charles H. Williams, and by the serious accident which occurred to her father, James T. Camp. Mr. Camp's injuries proved fatal, his death occurring on the 17th ult. The Rev. Charles S. Aves, '76, of Norwalk officiated at both funerals.

"Harcourt."

A few of the girls spent Thanksgiving at their homes.

Miss Louise Gebhart of Dayton paid a short visit to her friend, Miss Edgar, last week.

Miss Nellie Phellis, who is a student at Delaware spent Thanksgiving with her cousins, the Misses Guy.

Quite a number of the boarders were so fortunate as to have their parents with them the greater part of Thanksgiving week.

Miss Margaret Clark was the guest of Miss Barclay, at Harcourt, last week. She was heartily welcomed by all the old girls.

The dance given at the Academy on the evening of the 26th passed off very pleasantly. There was a large number in attendance.

We are very glad to say that Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are now our neighbors, and that we have the pleasure of their presence daily at meals.

The first of the series of afternoon receptions to be given at Harcourt, took place on the 21st. The seniors and a number of others assisted in receiving.

On November 20th a very enjoyable reception was given by Dr. and Mrs. Streibert. Several of the Harcourt girls attended and reported a very pleasant time.

Brevities.

Russell spent two days in Columbus last week.

The dance given at the Academy, we hear was good.

Foley, '91, had a short spell of sickness. He's better.

J. W. Ingham is enjoying the visit of Miss Fish of East Cleveland.

Harkness was hurt slightly while practicing at foot-ball the other day.

The Methodist Church in Gambier was dedicated on Thanksgiving Day.

Dr. Jones, '91, read services in Mt. Vernon Sunday before Advent, assisting Dr. Jones.

A very enjoyable church social was given on the 15th ult., at the Sunday-school room.

Louis Williams who has been home ever since his father's death, will return at the end of the term to take examinations.

The Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell are now occupying Mrs. French's house. The new quarters must be very comfortable we are sure.

Russell, Babst, Davies and Ringwalt drove in to Mt. Vernon on Thanksgiving morning, to attend service. It was a very fine one.

The Confirmation addresses of Dr. Mitchell on Sunday evenings are very good. The attention which all pay to them is a proof.

We are glad to see Duerr out and about again, though it be with the assistance of crutches. We hope these won't be necessary long.

Mr. Greenough White, late English Professor at Kenyon, is at present studying divinity at Cambridge, Mass., with a view to holy orders.

The new chapel at Bexley is not yet ready. It is on the first floor, and in every way will be a more desirable place for daily services than the library.

There is some talk of a play to be given next term, and other entertainments must be arranged for. The base-ball and other demands will be large.

Cox, who was hurt at foot ball has been able to be removed to his own rooms in Bexley. All the students, College and Divinity, express their heartfelt sympathy.

Dr. Jones was in Cleveland the first Sunday in Advent. He preaches in the evening at St. Paul's to the members of the chapters of the B'hord of St. Andrew of that city. Dr. Seibt took his place in Mt. Vernon.

A very heavy letter was received by the Treasurer of Athletic Association after the Kenyon-Columbus game on Thanksgiving. It contained a crisp ten dollar bill as a token of congratulation. Thank you! A splendid evidence of it.
